Description

Christmas is a magical time of the year and it was always my favorite as a kid. It still is! Students are required to have a basic point and shoot digital camera, and will be taking photos for assignments during class and outside of class during the holidays. This could be a very fun project for the kids to see how each of them perceive Christmas, and perhaps also very interesting for the parents to learn a little bit more about their kids. The first day they will be taking pictures and exploring different photography ideas and concepts to guide them through their Christmas project. Then they will be sent home with an assignment and the second day of class will be used to critique and learn from others work. Each of them will create a Christmas collage with their 6 best. We will critique each others work and learn from each others discoveries in photography.

I will have a trophy for the top 2 photographers and we will all go home with our collages.

A $10 supply fee will be collected.
